Mansion Built for British Billionaire Family Goes on Auction Block
Court Order Forces Sale of 12,000 Sq. Ft. Waterfront Villa in Jupiter, Florida,
Watch Sale, Bid On and Steal This Estate via Live Streaming Internet Broadcast
Formerly Appraised at more than $7 million, Bidding Starts at $4.5 Million

Jupiter, Fl...If you've ever had the desire to get a peek at the inside of a billionaire's estate, or maybe even if you have the bucks to buy one, now is your chance to get a look at, or even take a crack at not just buying but actually stealing a luxury waterfront estate villa for pennies on the dollar. During a live auction simulcast on the internet via streaming video, a global audience will have a rare and unique opportunity to witness, or even participate in the bidding and potential purchase of a 12,000 square feet, 5 bedroom, 8.5 bath, one-of-a-kind custom-designed Mediterranean-style estate home that was originally built for the extended family of renowned British Billionaire, Malcolm Healey.

Former Billionaire's Home Up for Bidding, Live via the Internet

"At one point valued at more than $7 million," says Les Bryant, Broker with Continental Realty Auctions, (www.continentalrealtyauctions.com) the company charged with the responsibility of bringing this extraordinary property to market, "a home of this magnitude and its incredible but brief history with ownership by not just one, but two of Great Britain's mega-millionaire family's warrants world-wide attention."

"Villa Del Fiume" – A World-Class Luxury Estate Home

The home, "Villa Del Fiume" (which means "River Villa" in Italian), is perched prominently on a gentle slope of nearly 2 acres of perfectly manicured grounds with 160' of pristine frontage overlooking the widest part of the acclaimed 8-mile stretch of Loxahatchee River in Jupiter, Florida. Quiet and discreet, Jupiter is a secret water-front enclave among those-in-the-know where some of the most expensive homes in the United States are located, and owned by some of the world's most recognized names in entertainment, sports and business.

Jupiter, Florida – The City of Stars: Home to the World's Rich and Famous

Meandering roads, mysteriously high hedges, imposing gated-entrances, quiet cul-de-sacs and never-ending miles of ocean-front, river-front and intra-coastal waterway properties are just some of the reasons the world's rich and famous call Jupiter home. Some of the people who have been born, lived or presently reside in Jupiter, located barely thirty minutes from Palm Beach International Airport, and only 23 miles from a private airport in Lantana, include the following:

Oprah Winfrey, Tom Cruise, Celine Dion, Burt Reynolds, Bryant Gumbell and Ralph Lauren. Sports stars include Rick Mears, Indy 500 winner, Scott Sharp - 1996 IRL Indycar champion, Bill Parcells - Former NFL Head Coach, Ron Wolf - Former general manager of NFL's Green Bay Packers among literally dozens of other super-successful and high-profile individuals. Golf legends who call Jupiter home include Tiger Woods, Jack Nicholas, Gary Player, and Greg Norman, among other renowned professionals.

Brief History and Overview of British Lineage: Billionaire Family Builds Breathtaking Estate Home

This stately home was originally built in 1998 for the British billionaire family of Malcolm Healey, a kitchen-cabinet manufacturer whose fortune was first made in the United Kingdom in the 70s, and then again in the United States. Transferring his ideas, technology and spirited entrepreneurship to America in the 80s, Healey founded Middlefield, Ohio-based Mills Pride, another company of his that went on to become one of the biggest kitchen manufacturers in the U.S. In 1999 Healey sold Mills-Pride to Masco Corporation of Taylor, Michigan in a multi-billion dollar transaction. A few years later, Malcolm Healey's son, Richard Healey, the primary resident of Villa Del Fiume for whom the luxury estate was originally constructed, moved into his new $23 million estate beach home not much farther away from this original home.

Villa Del Fiume, Part Deux: The English Lineage Continues, Attracting A Second British Family of Wealth.

In 2001, Villa Del Fiume was purchased by Stuart Lawley, a British dot com entrepreneur for the sum of $5.9 million, at the time it was the highest price paid for a home in Jupiter, FL, exceeded only by the purchase of a luxury residence at the time by Celine Dion for $9 million. Lawley had created various internet companies including Oneview.net, a company that was listed on the UK stock exchange. Lawley retired, selling his companies for $180 million, making him at the time the 338th richest man in England. Lawley and his wife presently own the home, but due to a divorce, the court has ordered the villa, that also includes an separate 1,200 square feet, 2 bedroom/2 bath guest home with its own porte cochere and enclosed two car garage, for sale at a minimum price of $4.5 million, a fraction of its true value.

The Team behind Villa Del Fiume
Unlimited Resources, Unparalleled Creativity in Design and Execution

A world-class team was assembled to help create and execute the vision of this British billionaire family. First on board, Simmons Building Corp, (www.simmons-building.com) a multiple award-winning design/build firm with an exclusive reputation of building timeless, old-world multi-million-dollar Mediterranean-style estate residences for the extremely well to do. Next up were the creative services of world-renowned Boca Raton-based architectural firm, Affiniti Architects, (www.affinitiarchitects.com). With offices in the U.S. and Caribbean, and the recipient of literally hundreds of awards for the design of luxury high-end estate homes, this team produced Villa del Fiume, a stellar example of the care and craftsmanship that goes into creating an exceptional living environment for one of the world's richest families.

An Award-Winning Team Produces an Award-Winning Mansion

Designed in 1995 and built in 1996/1997, it should come as no surprise that upon its interior design furnishing completed in 1998, Villa Del Fiume earned a number of awards and recognition by peers in the design/build industry. This luxury estate earned the most prestigious awards in the three most important categories. The annual "Prism" Awards sponsored by The Gold Coast Builders Association of South Florida recognized the home for "Best Architecture" for homes over $1.5 million, "Best Landscape & Pool Design" and finally, "Best Interior Design" for the work performed by the contributing interior design team, Simmons and Saray, (www.simmonsandsarayinteriors.com)
