

Carefree Interior Solutions

We make sure that your first day in your new place will seem like just another day at home!

You've Got To Move, We Can Help

You've got to move and you've got to move fast. Maybe it's for business, family, or personal reasons. Maybe you need to move across town, across the state, or possibly even across the country. Regardless of where it is, or when it is, the bottom line is you need a place to live and you don't necessarily want it to cost you a lot of money. There's a lot to do, you're under pressure to find the right place, and best of all, at Care Free Interior Solutions we can help you.

Imagine, We do the Work and Save You Money

You've got to admit, it sounds just too good to be true. But it's not. Because that is exactly what we do at Carefree Interior Solutions -- it's the service we provide. Literally, we do all the work and you save all the money. Let's face it, temporary or corporate housing can cost a lot of money. But, with our years of experience helping literally thousands of families, professionals, educators, and vacationers find the ideal environment to satisfy a wide range of tastes and an equally wide range of budgets, we have perfected the art and craft of delivering exceptional services for a demanding and discriminating clientele. Through Carefree Interior Solutions we now offer our expertise to customers who have housing needs, but who are cost and budget conscious.

You find the place, we'll do the rest.

Once you've found the place you'd like to move into, we'll step in and do everything else necessary to get your new place move-in ready. That's right. We do EVERYTHING. You have too much to think about and too many other things to do. Why place yourself under additional stress worrying about the details, now you can make your entire moving experience carefree. We'll organize and plan everything. We'll make every single call – from ordering furniture, TV's, and electronics, to dinner ware, flatware, even bedding, towels, blankets and more. There are dozens of errands and chores and things you'd rather not even have to think about, such as gas, electric, cable, and telephone, to name a few. Why worry? We'll do it for you and make your stressful moving experience totally carefree; and best of all, we'll save you money!

At Care Free Interior Solutions we'll make sure that your first day in your new place will seem like just another day at home. (Possibly use this as a "call out" tag-line somewhere on the page/site)

From Fun and Funky, to Staid and Conservative

Regardless of your age, taste and budget, we can finish and furnish your new residence to satisfy every taste and style. Are you a college student? No problem. How bout a business person who plans on having your residence double as an office and meeting place. Yup, we can do that. A man will likely want something different than a woman. It's obvious; we know this and can make sure every single housing assignment is executed to ensure that you have every single appliance, every piece of furniture, every cooking utensil and even flowers you need to make you totally happy, completely comfortable and super satisfied in your new place, whether you're there for thirty days or thirty months.

Let's face it, moving is a big deal, in fact it's just one big huge pain. And what's worse, if you are going to be living somewhere for a short period of time, getting the right furniture, from sofas and couches to a kitchen or formal dining room table, even lamps and end tables can be very challenging. You don't just have needs, you have standards and you don't want to compromise or feel cheated out of the comforts you are accustomed to. At Care Free Interior Solutions our mission is to make you feel as warm, welcome and comfortable as possible. We'll stretch your dollar until it screams and provide you everything you can afford to ensure your total happiness and satisfaction to meet your budget.

We'll Practically Read Your Mind

After years of helping thousands of people find the perfect housing and providing customer service with nothing short of exquisite attention to detail, we know exactly what's necessary to meet the needs of all types of people, to satisfy all types of tastes and budgets. In fact, we're practically mind readers, but even more importantly, we have created strategic alliances and vendor relationships throughout the United States, and abroad that allow us to provide hundreds of highly personalized services while saving you time, aggravation and money.

You Can Expect Big Savings

When you use Care Free Interior Solutions, not only do we save you time, and do all the work, but we save you money too. In fact, we can easily save you anywhere from $300 - $500 per month. And just think, what's it worth to you to have someone else, namely us, do all the work, make all the phone calls, arrange to meet your mover, call the utility companies, even arrange to have the paper at your front door the first day you move in? You probably can't even put a price on that. That's okay, it's what we do.

And when it's Over, We'll Close it Out For You Too

At the end of your lease, we'll also do everything necessary to close your residence. We'll make it just as easy getting out as it was getting in. Imagine, just one phone call and we do it all. We'll terminate all your utilities, we'll arrange to have all your furniture returned, we'll even make sure you get all of your deposits back. If you can find someone else who can make your life easier, let us know, we'd like to hire them.
