

Charles Patrick Garcia is committed to the Hispanic community. And Sterling Financial Investment Group, Inc. is committed to your family's financial future.

You have savings, maybe even some money to invest. There's college tuition to pay, or possibly a wedding to plan. Your son-in-law wants a loan to start that new business he's been talking about, or your daughter wants to borrow money for a down payment on a home.

Whether it's setting up an IRA, a 401K, a SEPTA account or providing estate planning, the most important thing that you want is peace of mind and financial security for you and your family — for today and the future.

Identified as one of the "Top 100 Most Influential Hispanics in the United States," Charles Garcia, Chairman and CEO of Sterling Financial Investment Group, understands the needs of the Hispanic community.

Garcia and his firm were profiled on the cover of the summer issue of Hispanic Today in an article "Committing to Hispanic America," and his company has been named the fastest growing privately held financial services firm in Florida.

If you're looking for a financial services firm that understands the needs of the Hispanic community, look no further. We understand you have a certain "passion for life." So do we. Ours is to help you satisfy your desires and achieve your dreams.

Advice you can count on.
People you can trust.
